THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

The manufacturers of the East have made combinations to wage warfare against the Knights of Labor, alleging that the organization has bred strife and discord in the manufacturing towns and demolished business.

There is no doubt that the reckless boycotting indulged in by new assemblies has brought about a state of affairs which has provoked the heavy firms to combine against the order. There is another factor in the case however worth considering. The knights at the present time have materially suffered, not by a falling off in numbers but by a too rapid growth, which has resulted in large numbers of men being admitted in the order whose aims were almost wholly mercenary, revengeful and political.

The result has been that new assemblies, as soon as organized and before they had received the constitution and by-laws of the order from headquarters, began a rash and senseless crusade against everybody and everything to retaliate for small grievance or none at all. Recently in Massachusetts there was a lock out of several thousand men and the man ordering the strike, when asked by the cooler headed Knights what occasioned his action, was compelled to admit that he knew of no reason for his course.

Here and there one hears of these things taking place but it does not follow that a million men in the order are all bent on such mad and foolish freaks.

The order is in a raw state just now and what it needs is age and discipline. Powderly is grasping the lines with a much firmer hand than formerly and recently he cut off with a stroke of his pen; over 10,000 men who had disobeyed the rules.

It is a grave mistake for monopolists to attempt to destroy the order from the fact that its creed is the fairest and most conservative of any similar organization and at any time can be easily met and arbitrated with.

If the order were destroyed its place would speedily be taken by a mob of socialists and anarchists, who would supplant brute force for reason and push arbitration aside for torch and dynamite.

Another Smelter for Nevada.

A San Francisco company with a capital stock of $500,000 has been organized to construct and operate a smelter at Golconda in this State. Three hundred thousand dollars has already been paid in and the work of laying the foundation will be commenced next week. There are humbles of tons of base ores in Humboldt county that should pay a profit on mining and reducing.

For some time past the San Francisco dailies have been elating the Examiner with employing a lot of low priced college bred journalists. Recently the Examiner retaliated in a most unexpected way. It picked out the most valuable men employed on the reportorial staff of its contemporaries and by a tempting raise of salary transported them to the Examiner staff. Result—A quashing of teeth all along the line. Since this the Examiner ought at least to be credited with placing a premium on journalistic talent in San Francisco.

—Michael Davitt in addressing the Irish people is obliged to advertise his meetings in one place and then speak in another in order to dodge the police. After a few meetings he is generally marched off to prison for six months. How different in Nevada where the campaign speaker has free passes on the railroads and $1,500 from the State Central Committee.

—The APPEAL is getting tired of the telegraph dispatches from Boston telling over and over again of the leading society belles who were photographed in a nude state. What we want to see are the pictures.

—Chicago has been toying with a wheat deal. The recent crash in that article is what causes the dealers to kick their under jaws along the side walk as they stride homeward after looking at the quotations,
